Limited courses registration in winter term 2022/23

Dear students,

This email contains important information concerning your course registration for the winter semester 2022/23.

At TUM School of Management, we offer two types of courses, namely courses with unlimited places and courses with limited places.

The following information is relevant for courses with limited places (=seminars and other limited courses), which have a specific registration procedure compared to courses with unlimited courses. We kindly ask you to read the following information carefully.

Please note that this procedure is relevant for courses with limited places offered by TUM School of Management – courses offered by other departments or schools may have different registration procedures (information on which can be found in the relevant course or module information in TUMonline, as is also the case for courses with unlimited places offered by TUM School of Management).

Information on course offers and start of the registration period

- From 15.09.2022: Please refer to TUMonline for all information on limited courses offerings for the winter term 2022/23.
  Register at TUMonline with your TUMonline ID. Enter your course preferences.

- Place allocation: Approx. on 10.10.2022 the confirmed place (Fixplatz) will be distributed.

For technical questions not covered in the FAQ (https://cms.mgt.tum.de/fileadmin/mgt.tum.de/downloads/BMT/FAQs_Allocation_of_Places_on_Courses_with_Limited_Places_for_Bachelor_Students.pdf) please contact seminars@mgt.tum.de
For questions regarding your studies, please contact: studentcounseling_bachelor@mgt.tum.de

Best regards,
Your Seminars team
